provides opportunity for students to explore Australia within the Asian region, how it is evolving both locally and internationally. It also provides students with concepts related to

- Asia and Australia
- the languages and cultures of the people of Asian history

Sustainability

Across the Western world, sustainability allows students to connect with their own culture within particular cultural contexts and international concepts. It explores alternative ways of thinking about conservation and history, and how to interact with other cultures and reflecting on concepts that are both productive and
