provides opportunity for students to explore Australia within the Asian region, how it is evolving both locally and internationally. It also provides students with concepts related to

- Asia and Australia
- the languages and cultures of the people of Asian history

Sustainability

Across the Western world, sustainability allows students to connect with their own and others within particular cultural contexts. It explores international concepts and alternative ways of thinking about conservation and history. It encourages students to interact with others and reflect on their own and others' both productive and
