◀ Return to Australian Curriculum Languages

provides opportunity for students to explore Australia within the Asian region, how culture is evolving both locally and globally. It also provides students with concepts related to

- Asia and Australia
- the languages and cultures of the people of Asian history

Sustainability

Across the Western world, sustainability allows students to connect with their own culture within particular curriculum areas. It also provides international concepts and alternative ways of thinking about conservation and history. It allows students to interact with other cultures and reflecting on their own both productively and creatively.
