Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander literacy to their children. The focus is on establishing literacy in the first language and Torres Strait Islander language. This is regarded as concordance with the first language. Although the languages are designed to be of fundamental value to the community, bilingual literacy of the children will contribute to improved literacy skills.

While the aims of the program are to support students, EAL/D students, to learn a new language and to develop literacy skills, students may require additional support to address their language needs. This may need additional time in formal settings.

Gifted and talented

Teachers can use the program to support individual learning and to provide a challenge for gifted and talented students.

Teachers can enrich the program with learning area content and to provide a challenge for gifted and talented students.
