The School Curriculum is a high-quality curriculum for Western Australian

All students are entitled to a high-quality education drawn from the Western Australian Curriculum, regardless of the range of their abilities, interests and make-up. The Western Australian Curriculum is designed to meet the diverse needs of students and cross-curriculum learning.

Students with disabilities

The Disability Discrimination Act 2005 requires educational institutions to provide students with disabilities with the same opportunities as students without disabilities.

Many students with disabilities have commensurate with the way in which they learn their learning.

In some cases, curriculum opportunities for students with disabilities in the Australian Curriculum
